Questions and Answers

Question #	Corresponding RFA Section	Applicant's Question	Answer
1.	General	How much is this reissue different from (or the same as) the last RFA from 2016?	The scope of services of the reissued RFA are predominately the same as the original RFA released in 2016. However, some requirements have been revised/added for the reissue. We recommend reading the RFA thoroughly to fully understand the program requirements as they are currently written.
2.	General	What happened with the original award to the RFA?	This is not relevant to submission of an application under this RFA.
3.	General	Can we get a list of the applicants who issued a proposal for the original award?	This is not relevant to submission of an application under this RFA. This information is available through the Freedom of Information Law (FOIL) process. Information for submitting FOIL requests can be found by following the link below: https://www.health.ny.gov/regulations/foil/howto.htm.
4.	General	Can you please clarify what is the "rest of state region"?	Please see RFA Section I. Introduction, Subsection: Available Funding and Anticipated Awards (page 6 of RFA) and Attachment 9 for a map of the region.
5.	Section V. Completing the Application (Pages 21-28 of RFA)	Would it be permissible to use some of the same forms and correspondence that we used prior if the issuers of those (e.g., CBOs and PPSs) simply reaffirmed that they were still interested in participating?	No. Applicants will be required to upload new Letters of Commitment, Letters of Endorsement from PPSs, and any other applicable forms in response to the reissued RFA. The date on the letters must be on or after the date of RFA re-issue.
